Explosion Levels City Lunch Shop

Like a London wartime blitz was the gas explosion that demolished the Stenson Lunch counter at 97 avenue and 101A street yesterday afternoon. Three walls were ripped away by terrific blast. Proprietor Rudy Dederer's truck lies partially buried beneath rubble. Glass was strewn over a wide area and a large plate glass window in the Kwong Lee Yuen grocery across street was shattered. Blast caused damage estimated at $8,000.

Three Escape Death In Cafe Blast

Three persons narrowly escaped death yesterday afternoon when a violent explosion demolished Stenson Lunch Counter at 101A street and 97 avenue.

A customer, Abban Cartmell, 77, 9431 101 street, pulled from the wreckage was taken in a city ambulance to Misericordia hospital. He was found to be suffering from serious head injuries, dislocated left hip, possible rib injuries, and cuts to the face.

A waitress, Agnes Grosse, 10545 103 street, was treated in the Royal Alexandra hospital for deep facial cuts, bruises, arm lacerations and fractured left leg.

Proprietor Rudy Dederer, 31828 104 street, was treated by Jack Hays ambulance attendants for severe cut on his hand and minor face lacerations.

$8,000 DAMAGE The $8,000 blast, believed caused from the ignition of accumulated coal gas, blew three sides from the cafe at 1000 97 avenue. The remains of the roof lay twisted on the ground over the wreckage and the north wall hung against a neighboring house.

Glass was strewn all across the intersection.

Dederer's truck, parked on the south side of the building was badly damaged from falling rubble. A large window in front of Pioneer Cash Store, 10020 97 avenue, was blown out from the concussion.

Grain Needed At Churchill

MONTREAL, Aug. 4.—(CP)—Two ships, originally bound for the Hudson Bay port of Churchill, had altered courses today and were reported heading for Montreal because of lack of grain in the northern elevators.

Shipping men reported it was the first time in many years ships had to be diverted from Churchill because of lack of grain.

Two other ships, however, the British freighters Fort Erie and Alcyon Fortune, were expected to arrive at Churchill during the week-end to open the grain shipping season.

The two will unload autos and other British goods at the Hudson Bay port and take on 8,000 tons of grain each if shipments from the prairie reaches the port in time.

DEATH ROARED PAST three fortunate occupants of Stenson Lunch counter in the Rosedale district yesterday when a violent gas explosion demolished the structure. Proprietor Rudy Dederer, waitress Agnes Grosse and customer Abban Cartmell escaped with minor hurts. Blast crumpled the building like a house of cards. There was no following fire.

LIVING-COST INDEX RISES TO NEW HIGH

OTTAWA, Aug. 4.—(CP)—Canada's soaring cost-of-living index jumped to a new high during June as rising food prices moved it to 162.1 from 160.5, the Bureau of Statistics reported today.

This advance, largest in months, was described as largely because of food prices.

The food index rose from 202.9 to 207.2. The rent index moved from 122.4 to 123.4.

Clothing was unchanged at 183.3 and home furnishings and services declined to 167.5. Fuel and light rose from 128.7 to 129.1.

Toronto in Panic As Three Missing

TORONTO, Aug. 4.—(CP)—Panicky Toronto citizens, alarmed at the unprecedented series of five murders in a week, flooded police and newspaper offices today with reports that friends or relatives are missing.

A salesman, a married woman and her small son have disappeared during the last three days and relatives have requested police aid in locating them.

The salesman was last seen three days ago near Huntsville, Ont., and the woman and her young son have been missing from their east-end home since Tuesday.

SADIST HUNTED The reports came while police were continuing their search for a sadistic hitch-hiker in connection with the apparently motiveless slaying of a young married couple.

The bullet-riddled bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. McKay were discovered while police pressed a search for a gunman who shot down Alfred Lavigne 25, while escaping from a robbed grocery.

Arrests have been made in the other two slayings—the bludgeoning death of Leslie Fern, 38, a dining car steward, and the fatal shooting of Arthur Winkler, 36-year-old department store employee.

Police say there is no connection between any of the slayings except those of the McKays, the most baffling of the group. Investigation indicates that a gunman with a .38-calibre revolver fired on them from the rear seat of their automobile in which they were giving him a lift and then drilled more bullets into their bodies while they lay dying.

ATE WITH KILLER Efforts to establish the scene of the McKay killings raised the possibility that the couple ate supper with the gunman Monday night, a few hours before the shooting. Restaurant employees at Bradford, 40 miles north of Toronto, said they saw the McKays with a medium-tall man about 22 years old.

80 attempts was made to rob the couple, nor to steal their 1942-model sedan. Police said Mrs. McKay had not been criminally attacked.

Prof. Joelyn Rogers, ballistics expert, said the slayer "used a .38-calibre handgun with a desire to kill."

FOUND IN CAR Mrs. McKay was found dead yesterday in the couple's car, which had been left abandoned near the old Christie Street military hospital in northeast Toronto. The husband's body was discovered late Tuesday in a gully near a wooded park on Toronto's northern outskirts.

Relatives and friends said that as far as they knew, the couple had no enemies. McKay, who served during the Second World War with the RCAF in India and England, was described as "a swell guy."

Accumulated permits for the year stood at 3,146 worth $22,187,050, an increase of 63 per cent in value over last year's 2,317 valued at $13,548,853.

July housing figures edged $13,000 from last July's $1,368,100, to touch $1,373,100.

Commercial building, both new and alterations, involved 47 permits for $704,789 during July, and six institutional permits accounted for $571,860.

NEW APARTMENTS Four new residential apartments worth $277,000 were authorized. Thirteen new institutional buildings have been granted permits so far this year, at a total value of $4,739,892, compared with nine in the same period last year, valued at $1,476,000.

"No date yet on commercial permits have been issued for $2,854,978, compared with 107 last year worth $2,490,050."

U.S. Sympathy Strike Hinted in Hawaii Row

By Willard D. Eberhart

HONOLULU, Aug. 4.—(UP)—A spokesman for the striking CIO longshoremen's union hinted today any attempt to break the 90-day-old Hawaiian maritime tie-up would result in a walkout of CIO longshoremen on the U.S. mainland.

Robert McKirath, publicity man for the longshoremen, told the Hawaiian legislature and the stevedoring industry that West Coast longshoremen were free to strike at any time. He said they were now working under a "recess" in the 1948 west coast strike.

While not openly threatening a strike, McKirath's statement was interpreted as a warning to the Hawaiian legislature, which is now considering a bill to create a government stevedoring agency.

MEET AUG. 22
McKirath said mainland longshoremen would meet Aug. 22 to vote on the West Coast agreement. He said it would recommend rejection if any move is made in Hawaii to break the longshore strike.

"Yes," Cartmell called from the front of the building. He was found pinned under the rubble and complained of a sore leg.

A neighbor across the street from the cafe, John Kuntz, 9737 97 street, said he heard the explosion at about 5:05 p.m.

"I was just sitting down to dinner. When I heard the blast I rushed out the front door. There was a cloud of white smoke and the roof of the cafe heaved up and away."

A city bus driver claimed he had entered the cafe shortly before the explosion. At that time he smelled coal gas and asked the waitress if she had a headache.

The gas, he said, was in the store. Betty Arvill, 9706 97 street, and her chum were playing on the front porch of the next house, four yards from the cafe, when the blast occurred. Both were slightly out from glass. The porch was littered with glass.

CHAPTER 3

"There is enough atomic energy in the body of one man to destroy the city of New York," says a prominent physicist. We read this with a certain understanding but let us try to press them deep into our minds and realize it.

There is enough power in you to blow the city of New York to rubble. That, and nothing less, is what advanced physics tells us.

But this is so, and it is undeniable, why have an inferiority complex? If there is literally enough force in you to blow the city of New York to rubble, there is also literally enough power in you to overcome every obstacle in your life.

When you know yourself and realize the tremendous power within yourself, you will then know that you do not need to be a defeated person because you are not. You are not a loser. You are a winner. PLENTY OF PIG will be added to this little porker held by Ada Stanley of Salisbury before it hits the market. Ada struck up acquaintance at William Lesyk's Namoah hog ranch yesterday during Chamber of Commerce Operation Field Day. Each of ranch's 270 sows raises average of 9.2 pigs per litter, twice a year. In anybody's language that's a lot of hog.

Grande Prairie Jammed For War Games Start

Hundreds of army and air-force men are mustering at a little-used air base outside Grande Prairie today.

They will take and fight the sort of limited "enemy" raid that is seen as the only potential menace to Canada under current conditions.

Exercise Eagle, biggest land-air peacetime exercise Canada has ever held, will be touched off at dawn tomorrow when word comes through to the northern Alberta town that the "enemy" has been seized by small hostile air-borne forces.

Retaliation will set in movement some 1,200 men, including the "enemy" Senior brass from both services as well as one American and one British observer will watch the unfolding of manoeuvres which encompass the first 30 miles of the Alaska highway.

A battalion of army paratroops, nine squadrons of fighter and bomber aircraft and administrative staffs will get a testing in what was originally designed as a check on the training given the Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry as the first of three regular regiments to be prepared for a role in Canada's airborne brigade.

The Grande Prairie base, 250 miles northwest of Edmonton, built during the war by the Americans, normally is manned by air force men. Today it is alive with paratroops, jeeps, tents and general hustle and bustle.

LOOK WHO WISHES FOR ANGEL'S WINGS

Everybody jokes about it happening when a group tours a jail, but it never happens—well, hardly ever, that is.

Yesterday it finally took place.

The male section of Operation Field Day, the Chamber of Commerce's conducted agricultural tour, was being shown through Fort Saskatchewan Provincial jail by Warden J. D. McLean.

After a detailed inspection of one of the cell blocks, with its three tiers of barred cells, the group congregated near the exit listening to a guard explain the lock system on cell doors.

A restrained "Hey!" pierced the air. The guard continued talking.

A more insistent "Hey!" echoed through the corridor, and the group started slightly.

Apparently sensing abandonment by the party, the voice yelled, "Hey! Let me out!"

City Woman Dies In East

A city woman, Mrs. Eleanor Richardson, 1041-05 street, died suddenly of a heart seizure Tuesday at Port Stanley, Ont.

She was 34 years of age. Mrs. Richardson had been holidaying with her parents, and had been away from Edmonton for the past month with her son Lloyd, aged two.

Town Planner Proposed Here

Finance Committee Makes Recommendation To Council

Edmonton will have a permanent town planner if city council acts favorably on a recommendation made at a finance committee meeting last night.

Committee made the recommendation after hearing a report by Mayor Harry D. Ainlay from the Canadian Federation of municipalities on a proposed plan for providing expert assistance to member organizations.

Secretary of the association wrote the mayor recently stating it seemed likely the plan would get underway in the near future. The letter also recommended two McGill professors, Dr. John Bland and H. Spence Sales, if Edmonton is in immediate need of advice on town planning.

FEES PLUS EXPENSES
The experts would come to Edmonton at least $25 to $30 per day, each, plus travelling and living expenses, it was stated.

The association secretary also recommended two young men for the position of permanent town planner.

Commissioner D. B. Menzies said the commissioners have in mind a 25-year-old town planning expert now employed by the City of Chicago. The man is British and would be interested in coming to Edmonton.

YOUNG MAN FAVORED
Ald. James Douglas said he was in favor of a young man for the job who could grow-up with the city.

It was decided to recommend to council that commissioners be authorized to hire a permanent town planner and to recommend two assistants in town planning if it is required.

Mayor Ainlay observed that no city in Canada has done more town planning than Edmonton. He said the city has only recently started to do any real town planning.

Edmonton started town planning years ago. It is wrong to say this city just "grew like Topsy," he said.

House Organ Salutes City

Edmonton, subject of two articles in recent issues of Maclean's, has "made" another magazine.

The Harvester, monthly organ of International Harvester Company of Canada, Ltd., devotes four pages and the cover to a "Salute to Edmonton."

Concludes the Harvester: "It is almost impossible to paint too bright a picture of Edmonton's future. . . Oil, that magic word that stirs men's minds, has stirred the city of Edmonton into the greatest period of activity in its whole history."

City Child Is Polio Victim

Edmonton's third polio case of the year was chalked up today.

A seven-year-old girl, admitted to hospital July 24, has been diagnosed as polio. Medical Health Officer Dr. G. M. Little said today. Like the previous case in July, there was no sign of paralysis or muscular weakness, and the child is now recovered.

BEER PRICE INCREASE UNLIKELY

Alberta beer isn't going up in price.

That's the latest word from A. J. Mason, chairman of the Liquor Control Board.

Mr. Mason was commenting on a report from Victoria which said that B.C. beer drinkers will pay 10 cents more on every dozen beers sold in the province as of the beginning of this week.

Draft beer in B.C. is going up, too, but the manufacturer's price increase will be absorbed by beer parlor operators and the public will get it at the same old price.

Two Charged With Assault

Two brothers arrested and charged last night with assault following an attack on a child were remanded in police court today until August 11.

Robert and Russell Berard of Edmonton were apprehended by prowler car Constables C. H. Graham and C. M. Mitchell investigating a fight reported in the vicinity of the Union Cafe, 10310-97 street at 11 p.m.

Complainant Adolph Bekowski, 16110A-102 street, identified the accused as the two men who had attacked and beaten him about the face earlier in the evening.

Both accused pleaded not guilty to the charge. Bail was set at $500 each.

School Board Meets

Edmonton Public School Board will meet tomorrow in the Board Room, 519 Civic Block, at 11:30 a.m.

Recalls old days

At least one Edmonton man recalls the days when the bulls of Alberta were "black with buffalo."

Ben Munro, 10660-101 street, who says he's just turned 81, remembers going out with his family on buffalo hunts when he was "just a little fellow."

But Ben Munro says he could ride a fast horse, run down the buffalo and kill them as well as the rest.

He blames wasteful white men for the disappearance of the buffalo. While he says, he says, would drive them over cliffs "by the thousands."

TOURING STATES
Robert A. Anderson, clerk of the Alberta legislative assembly left last week-end for a three-week motor vacation to the United States.

He will visit Salt Lake City and several other cities in the Rocky Mountain states region.

EDMONTONIAN AT BRUSSELS
A city man is one of three Canadians attending first meeting of the permanent council of the World Assembly of Youth now being held in Brussels.

He is Wilbert M. Haugan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin J. Haugan, 11242 7th avenue.

Graduated from University of Alberta in agriculture in 1941. Mr. Haugan received his bachelor's degree in social work from UBC, after serving in the navy during the war.

He joined the state department at Ottawa, and is now youth liaison officer with the citizenship branch of the department.

Oil drilling in Alberta in 1945 amounted to 1,662,687 feet—almost double that of 1947.

Agriculture Schools Turn Away Students

Some applications for attendance at the Alberta schools of agriculture next fall and winter have been rejected because of lack of accommodation.

This was announced today by Hon. David A. Ure, provincial minister of agriculture.

Approximately 295 applications have been received for the courses in agriculture and 112 have been submitted for course in home economics at both Olds and Vermilion schools.

Registration for the 1949-50 term will take place Oct. 25. Because of lack of space at schools applications from both boys and girls have this year been considered by an applications committee.

Committee found it necessary to turn down about 25 young men for the agriculture courses.

In the case of girls a few more applications will be accepted for the course in home economics at Vermilion School of Agriculture.

Oil Worker Dies in Fall

R. Harvie Gladstone died near Stettler Tuesday night when he is thought to have fallen from an oil derrick during a storm.

The 25-year-old oil worker is believed to have fallen when he came in contact with a charged wire during the electrical storm which swept the Stettler area Tuesday night.

Gladstone's home is in the Bonde district, about 100 miles northwest of Edmonton.

RCMP are investigating.

Calm Here As Calgary Fights Film Censorship

Calgary film fans are all steamed up over a ruling which limits the number of foreign pictures permitted in that town. But there's nothing new about the ruling. It's been in effect since February, 1947.

What has Calgary mad is that the Alberta government film censor is demanding a full script translation of all foreign films. The censor wants to weed out the "dirty" ones.

And P. J. Fleming, chief censor for Alberta, claims there are plenty that need weeding out.

Mr. Fleming admits that Calgary branch of the National Film Society wants the regulation eased.

But here in Edmonton, the film fans have simmered down. They realize that there's nothing wrong with the kind of censorship imposed by the ruling.

All foreign pictures entering Alberta are stamped and recorded by the board of censors. There are thousands of foreign films brought here annually from Japan, Yugoslavia, Russia, the Ukraine, Germany, France and Italy.

And many of these films are said to be "too realistic."

Up to a few years ago there were about 7,000 foreign films floating around the province without government approval. All that has been stopped by the board of censors.

"Realism," to many, said Mr. Fleming, "means dredging the gutter."

Milk Delivery Facts

How the Board of Public Utilities Commissioners could rule for a six-day milk delivery after hearing of babies made ill by spoiled milk would be beyond comprehension.

It has been shown that 35 per cent of Edmonton homes have no refrigeration. This means that 35 per cent of Edmonton homes run exactly the same risk of sickness among babies through spoiled milk over week-ends as occurred in the cases reported to the city health department.

The instances of this kind cited by Dr. G. M. Little represent only a small fraction of the total because the public generally is inarticulate.

But it is that inarticulate mass of the public whose interests the health department, the Utilities Commissioners and certainly The Edmonton Bulletin are or should be most anxious to protect.

This newspaper conceives it its duty to speak for those thousands who cannot speak for themselves.

And it speaks for those thousands who are most vehemently against the curtailment of the normal seven-day delivery system which menaces the health and well-being of little children.

It would be an unspeakable offence against all humanitarian decency that curtailment of service be allowed to continue.

Legislation Too Long Delayed

Two brothers, 19 and 14, died at the bottom of a well at Penhold the other day because noxious fumes had collected at the bottom of it.

These cases are common. On the same day the two boys were killed by gas fumes in Penhold, two other young men, 23 and 18, died in exactly the same way in a well at Langbank, Saskatchewan.

Nothing can be done in Alberta about the fatalities of this kind that occur in Saskatchewan. But something can be done about the ones that occur in this province.

An a matter of fact, legislation along these lines is sadly overdue.

Almost exactly 12 years ago, a young man was asphyxiated in a well near Edmonton and a coroner's jury brought in certain recommendations for legislation to deal with such cases.

National Commission on Arts

The people of Canada would be a little happier about Vincent Massey's royal commission on arts and science if they were told a little more clearly and coherently what it was all about.

Mr. Massey and for other commissioners, we understand, are to go tearing about Canada trying to discover what federal money can do to assist the development of libraries, scholarships, museums and every variety of cultural activity.

Now such an effort can be of infinite value if it genuinely promotes art, in its

A few housewives were brought before the Board who were quite content with the six-day system. Perhaps these people have refrigeration. Perhaps they have no small children. Perhaps they are among those families who use little milk.

That sort of evidence is of no value whatever unless a complete poll is taken, house by house, of every Edmonton family.

An attempt was made to put into the mouths of witnesses against the curtailed delivery an admission that if 250 store outlets, which sell milk on Sundays, were equipped with complete refrigeration, the situation would be satisfactory.

But the argument is absurd. What small storekeeper can afford to install expensive refrigeration out of the paltry profits to be made on the Sunday sale of milk?

And if store sale of milk is satisfactory on week-ends, why is it not satisfactory seven days of the week? Why have deliveries at all?

The entire issue before the Board boils down to this: Is Edmonton so devoid of compassion and common decency as to countenance a system which attacks the health of babies?

There is no color of right to any system that threatens the life of even a single child.

Letters to the Editor

This coroner's jury urged that the provincial legislature pass an act forbidding anyone to go into a well unless the air was first tested for purity. The jury demanded that this act make it unlawful to go down such a well without a safety rope strapped about the shoulders so that one could be hauled up hurriedly if overcome.

These recommendations went to the provincial legislature of the province of Alberta, as a matter of course, and governmental officials promised that something would be done.

That was 12 years ago. And nothing has ever been done.

There's bound to be a lot of argument over this. Gen. Douglas MacArthur, Allied occupation commander in the Pacific, announces that he has got up the Zaibatsu, the economic giants of pre-war Japan.

These tight financial trusts were a fundamental part of Japan's economic and political fabric. In their heyday most of Japan's banking, heavy industry, shipping, holding companies and subsidiaries were owned by them.

They were meat and drink to the two great Japanese political parties. The Zaibatsu made money out of the war, and was ready and willing to arm the greater Japan. They encouraged military aggression when they thought it likely to succeed. They viewed against it when they thought it would fail.

Control of Japan was a matter of a balance struck among the military, the politicians, and the military. The process of the Zaibatsu was to be a balance between the military and the politicians. The Zaibatsu was to be a balance between the military and the politicians.

Would he come back to hear "killed in the blitz" and wonder why he had come through alive.

Catholic Scholars

Editor, Bulletin—Let it be distinctly understood that Catholics are in no way disturbed by such an exhibition of ignorance and prejudice as manifested by your correspondent B. Skorgean.

I was a Protestant I would certainly refrain from so violent a diatribe against the Catholic Church because I would realize that such an attitude adds nothing to the prestige of any Protestant Church.

The great scholars who joined the church from pure conviction refuted entirely the contention that the Pope represents a reactionary element to the incalculations of right thinking men.

There are over 1,000,000 converts received into the Catholic Church every year.

Here are a few names of men who enjoyed an international reputation and were convinced that the Catholic Church was God's kingdom on earth. They were: Cardinal Newman, Cardinal Manning, Father Faber, Dr. Luke Rivington, Dr. Chase, Father Vassal Phillips and there are many too numerous to mention.

Mr. Gladstone who was to have been received into the Catholic Church, but declined at the last moment explains his position with these words, "I do not wish to break with Oxford, nor the traditions of Oxford, nor what I have learnt from four great doctors of the world."

He names them, Aristotle, St. Augustine, Dante and Bishop Butler. Aristotle the Pagan, St. Augustine and Dante, Catholics, Bishop Butler an Anglican Authority in Sacred Scriptures.

It may be well to draw the attention of your correspondent to the confusion of the celebrated Heine. "I know too well my own mind, I know too well my own soul, I know too well my own heart, I know too well my own mind, I know too well my own soul, I know too well my own heart."

Teacher Shortage Seen Increasing All Over Alberta

By Stan Ross

STAN ROSS

While little has been said about the teaching situation, beyond a short flurry last week, the approach of the fall term does bring up the fact that the teacher shortage is going to be as great, if not greater than ever, this year. Plus the further fact that the only discernible teacher policy seems to be the hope that wage rates will tumble so far that people will be forced into teaching again. Neither is very attractive.

Yet there can be no argument over the fact that a very substantial increase in the number of teachers needed for public and high schools is inevitable. Ottawa tells us that almost half a million immigrants have reached Canada.

Our own population is growing and the number of children is certainly increasing. Alberta with all the recent developments is likely to show a larger percentage increase than most sections of Canada.

Yet in Alberta the shortage of teachers is already far over the 500 mark. Eric Anley, secretary of the Alberta Teachers' Association suggests 800 by this fall and in spite of improving it is becoming worse, in spite of the fact that the Provincial Government is offering many inducements to students willing to enroll as student teachers.

However there is little point in offering special awards and inducements to get people to train as teachers at government expense if those new teachers are not going to remain in the job any longer than it takes them to find something else. On that basis the Province is simply wasting cash.

Rural Residents Complain

At the same time there are mounting complaints from many rural residents regarding increases in taxation. Taxes on farm lands have increased in many cases. They were already high in other cases.

Not quite a number of municipalities are imposing personal property taxes upon the residents of the towns and villages and upon the stock in local stores and in some instances have increased taxes upon these small businesses out of all reason. You will find a small business in a small hamlet paying higher taxes today, in some cases, than a much larger business would pay in the city of Edmonton.

That practice is going to cripple many of these rural businesses. The tax load certainly cannot be increased. Yet there still is not enough money to pay even reasonably attractive salaries to rural school teachers who average far below almost every other type of occupation. If more local taxes cannot be collected, then there are school situations in some areas where teachers are being forced to leave. Unless, of course, we have a serious outbreak of unemployment forcing people to turn to teaching and no one wants to do that.

It is true that each time something turns up we suggest using the money to be returned from other resources and, of course, we cannot apply all of that money to any phase of provincial activity. You can only spend that income once.

Subsidization Needed

Yet the cold fact remains that unless some oil money, or unless some money is used to subsidize teaching that we are going to move from bad to worse and the burden on the Roman Catholic Church is going to remain far too heavy.

In this respect it must be remembered that farm incomes have been high. But if we have a few leaner years, farmers will not be able to keep up their taxes and then there will be new troubles.

The department is right in urging economy if that means avoiding unnecessary expenditures. No district can practice economy in the way of salaries which in some cases should be considered as credit for human resources. No district can practice much economy when it is not yet paying enough to attract a teacher to its school.

Canada's Best Bet

PHILPOTT

The amazing feature of Mr. Abbott's recent statement on the British crisis was that the agreements between Britain and Russia were "miserable arrangements."

Miserable for whom? No one can deny that Britain needs the millions of tons of coarse grains which she will get under this latest deal.

And what is more to the point, no one can deny that Russia is willing to do what Canada and the United States are not, as yet, that is, take payment in goods.

Look here, the farmer in surprise, "what time am I going to see the town?"

When Canada found that we were buying as much more from the U.S. than we were selling, Mr. Abbott faced up to the emergency and we had "Abbott austerity."

We cut our U.S. dollar purchases by the bone. It worked. That is exactly what Britain is getting ready to do.

The only difference is that she will be forced to buy her purchases from Canada as well as from the U.S.A.

Not on List

In the 1944 figures, Russia does not appear on the list of the first ten countries of supply to Britain—nor on the list of ten leading buyers from Britain.

Canada was the chief country of supply for Britain, but Canada was only Number Five country on the list of biggest buyers from Britain.

Hence, any international financial crisis which has the effect of forcing Britain to buy only where she can equate the value of the goods to a blow in the dollar market.

Livestock Entry High at Red Deer

53rd Annual Fair Opens;
Chuck Wagon Races Tonight

RED DEER, August 4.—Red Deer's 59th annual fair opened today for a three-day stand with every indication of being one of the largest and finest events in the long history of the Red Deer Agricultural Society.

President John Richards, secretary-treasurer D. W. Robertson and directors from country and city have worked hard for months past getting ready for the big show. They all feel that this year's fair will prove an outstanding one in all respects and that Central Alberta people will be well repaid for paying it a visit.

Livestock is always a big feature of the Red Deer fair and this year there is again a record entry in all divisions, cattle, horses, sheep and swine. Competition is going to be extremely keen. F. H. Newcombe, Edmonton, director of extension for the Alberta Department of Agriculture, will be at the "milk" for the stock judging. Newcombe is a former resident of Red Deer, having served for 20 years as district agriculturist here.

STOCK PARADE FEATURE

Another highlight of the stock show will be the monster parade of prize-winning stock in front of the exhibition on Saturday afternoon. Judging of the stock will commence on Friday morning.

While stock is an important part of the exhibition the ladies' department is another strong feature. It has gained in number of entries in recent years and there is a good entry in fancy work of all types, and domestic classes which includes cooking, canning, etc. A great range of miscellaneous classes, such as hobby collections, cooking, sewing, leathercraft, etc., are also shown.

Altogether close to $5,000 is being offered in this year's prize list.

MANY IMPROVEMENTS

Fairgoers will find a number of improvements at the Exhibition this week. Fair grounds Commission has built a new grandstand which will seat 800 people. The old grandstand accommodates 750. To that seating has been doubled. New modern rest rooms for men and women are under the new stand, with entrances from inside and outside the paddocks. A new platform for grandstand attractions has been built, about 1,200 square feet in area.

Parking has been a serious problem at the Exhibition grounds but this summer it will be eased considerably as a large plot of land has been taken into the grounds to provide additional space.

The fair will open on Thursday evening with a four-hour program of platform acts for grandstand patrons and chuck wagon races. There will be no charge for admission to the grounds but the usual charge will be made for the grandstand.

OFFICIAL OPENING FRIDAY

Official opening of the fair takes place on Friday afternoon in front of the grandstand. Mayor Dr. C. R. Bunn will perform the official ceremonies. Afterwards Johnny Phelan, Red Deer, the city's crowned world's chuck wagon champion, will be honored by a presentation.

A good program of running races has been lined up for Friday and Saturday afternoons with chuck wagon races every night. Parimutuel will operate.

Among the guests will be Hon. D. A. Ure, provincial Minister of Agriculture, and member for Red Deer. There will also be many special visitors during the fair.

Wheat Board Arranges For Farmer Marketing

WINNIPEG, Aug. 4.—(CP)—The Canadian Wheat Board has signed handling agreements with elevator companies covering farmer marketings of oats and barley, G. H. McIvor, chief commissioner of the board, announced yesterday.

The move by the Wheat Board adds another step to the switch-over from private marketing of prairie oats and barley to government marketing through the Wheat Board.

Mr. McIvor said the Wheat Board also accepted its first deliveries of the two grains Tuesday. Marketings of all coarse grains for the day totalled 657,000 bushels as compared with marketings a year ago of 164,000 bushels.

Mr. McIvor declined comment on how long it would be before the Wheat Board will be selling oats and barley to the grain trade in private outlets, close to the trade place the time lag as three or four weeks.

WORKING OUT SCHEDULE

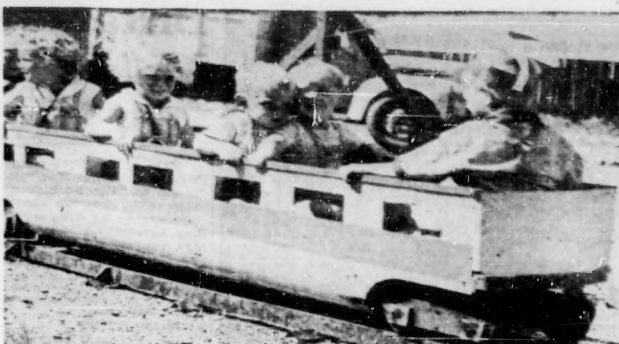

The chief commissioner said time will be required to work out the full plan for marketing of the two coarse grains. At the moment, he said, the board is working out a schedule of prices to be paid farmers at country points.

Yesterday morning the Australian party was conducted on a tour of the valley by members of the Drumheller board of trade. Along the road-side in the Badland area they saw outcroppings of dinosaur bones, petrified trees and fruits.

Mr. Gullick and party displayed keen interest in the sheep on the farms of P. J. Rock and Charles Borwick. At the Al De Boer ranch they inspected a herd of Hereford cattle and later examined a Short horn herd at the Rock farm.

Harlem Smoothie Able With Words

Up in Harlem, they will tell you that Charlie-Ed Harris is the amoseth-talking man who ever put leather to Lenox Avenue.

For example, there was the time a cop picked him up on 116th Street for passing a red light.

"Sorry, air," said Charlie-Ed. "But I saw the white folks passing the green lights, so naturally I figured the red ones were for colored people."

But the classic story of Charlie-Ed's genius dates back to the summer he worked as butler for Reginald Parker III.

DECENT SORT

Reginald, as the saying goes, was quite a decent sort, and butlering at the Parker manse was made even easier by the fact that Mrs. Parker, a professional do-gooder with a finger in a dozen sticky pies, was generally out of town lecturing and letting her conscience be the other fellow's guide.

That July, Reginald Parker, decided to spend a few weeks in Southampton and instructed Charlie-Ed to board up the house. "If it's just for a month," said Charlie-Ed, "I'd be glad to live here and take care of the place."

This seemed like a first-rate idea to Mr. Parker, seeing as how he never knew when he might be called back to town on business.

LITTLE LONESOME

The following Saturday, Charlie-Ed got lonesome and decided to throw a little party, and at 3 a.m., as the joints began to close, there was a mass exodus from Lenox Avenue which included bartenders, a couple of jump bands and the complete chorus lines of the Pink Elephant Club and the Blue Tiger Cafe.

Most of the performers came without bothering to change make-up or costumes, and for the next few hours everybody had himself a time as the hottest fingers in Harlem plucked away on the Steinway grand, and a big-name trumpeter did his best to splinter the crystal in the chandelier.

Then, as luck would have it, Mrs. Parker, fresh from a bout with the devil in Denver, picked out this particular morning to return unexpectedly.

NOSTRILS AKIMBO

"What is the meaning of this?" she asked, nostrils akimbo, as she walked into the living room. "Meaning?" Charlie-Ed said smoothly. "May I ask who you are, madam?"

"I am Mrs. Reginald Parker." "Parker?" Ah—you must be the wife of the gentleman who used to live here. The house changed hands last week.

"That's impossible. It was in both our names." "I suggest you take that up with Mr. Parker," said Charlie-Ed.

PINK ELEPHANTS

costumes, dashed into the living room pursued by a couple of Blue Tiger booters.

"Wh-wha's that?" asked Mrs. Parker.

"Pink elephants and blue tigers, madam."

Mrs. Parker made a noise like a suction pump and left.

Next afternoon the miffy matron was back accompanied by Mr. Reginald.

HOPE NOTHING IS WRONG
"Glad to see you, sir," said Charlie-Ed. "I hope nothing is wrong."

Reginald made a quick inspection and found everything in order. "Mrs. Parker tells me there was a wild party here last night," he said.

"Then the lady really is Mrs. Parker?" said Charlie-Ed. "She claimed to be, but of course, I didn't believe her, because—I wonder, sir, if I could talk to you alone a minute."

He lowered his voice and began to confide something.

"You don't say?" said Reginald. "You mean she was actually dr..."

TELL ABOUT PARTY
"No whispering," said Mrs. Parker. "Tell him about the party."

"Party? What party, madam?" "Are you trying to deny what I saw with my own eyes last night?"

"What exactly did you see?" asked Mr. Parker.

"Pink elephant girls."

"What else?"

"Blue tigers."

Mr. Parker shook his head sadly.

TAPPED FOOT
"Well..." said his wife, tapping her foot. "What are you going to do about it?"

"Under the circumstances, my dear, there isn't much I can do."

"Either that man goes, or I go," Mr. Parker made no reply.

"Very well," said his wife. "You'll hear from my lawyers immediately."

"Sorry, sir," said the policeman as he turned to leave. "I know how it is..."

OFFERS DRINK
"Hope I didn't say anything wrong, sir," said Charlie-Ed. "Can I fix you a drink?"

"No thanks, I feel fine," said Reginald. "I'm returning to Southampton. Look after things while I'm gone."

"Very good, sir."

"—and, sir, by the way," Mr. Parker reached into his pocket and pulled out a blue silk tiger tail.

"I found this behind the umbrella stand," he said. "You might want to return it to its owner."

"Very good, sir," said Charlie-Ed.

DUAL ROLE of sensitive art instructor and gay, ne'er-do-well lawyer is played by Dana Andrews in "The Forbidden Street" playing now at Empress Theatre. Film which also stars Maureen O'Hara is based on "Britannia Mews," Margery Sharp's best-selling novel. Produced in London by William Perleberg, film also features Dame Sybil Thordike and Diane Hart.

Inside Hollywood

By Bob Thomas

HOLLYWOOD — (AP) — Enough of this kid-stuff smooching on the screen says Jane Powell. She wants the real thing.

"It's time I was getting more than a quick amuck from Scotty Beckett," she said on the set of "Nancy Goes to Rio," in which she has another puppy-love romance.

"How long can I go on like this?" "Look at Elizabeth Taylor," she said. "She got to play Robert Taylor's wife in a picture. And she's three years younger than I am!"

SINATRA SWATTERS
Frank Sinatra's swooners whipped Andy Russell's sprouts in their annual out-of-this-world series which raised $24,000 for youth work.

Some of the actors proved to be softball stars as well. Funniest gag came when a taxi stopped at the players' bench and delivered the stars to their field positions.

Eleanor Powell is set for her screen reappearance in "Duchess of Idaho." She will play herself and do a dance number.

CROSBY CLAN
Bing Crosby's boys make their first screen appearance as young men for a "Top Gun Morning" trailer. The boys squeal their pop with some funny lines and show decided acting ability.

Sara Haden (she was the aunt in the Hardy series, remember?) is used to having her name confused. During a recent Texas tour, she heard herself called Sara Allgood and Sara Patten. But she began to worry when a girl pointed and said, "There's Sarah Bernhardt."

Britannia Mews Makes Top Film

New Hollywood Team Scores In Screening Of Best-Seller

One of the first pictures to be made under the new Twentieth Century Fox "global" plan of motion picture production in "The Forbidden Street" the new film starting today at the Empress Theatre.

Representing the finest work of Dana Andrews and Maureen O'Hara, who are teamed for the first time in the starring role, "The Forbidden Street" was photographed in England under supervision of Producer William Perleberg and shows the fine directorial touches of Jean Negulesco.

BASED ON NOVEL

Based on Margery Sharp's best-selling novel, "Britannia Mews," the film casts Maureen as Adelaide Culver, the society-raised English lass who kicks over her Victorian traces and marries her art teacher.

Soon disillusioned by the domestic drudgery and unhappiness brought on by her husband's affinity for drink, she is unable to leave Mews, London's cobble-lined stable row slums when he meets his untimely end.

Persevering, she ultimately finds happiness after a series of discouraging events.

OFFERS CHALLENGE

For Andrews, "The Forbidden Street" offers a challenge in that he is seen not only as the sensitive art instructor who wooed and won the beautiful Miss O'Hara, but later appears as the gay, ne'er-do-well lawyer who brings happiness into her life.

In this difficult portrayal, Andrews again shows the versatility that has won him wide acclaim.

Photographed in the actual locale of Miss Sharp's novel, "The

"I am sure," Scott said, "that Mr. Truman is against the Statist or brass knuckle state; that Mr. Truman is against statism; that he doesn't know and doesn't believe that he carries the malignant terms of the police state around in his ideologies and his promises."

South Sask. Farmers Facing Lean Winter

By Kenneth Lamb
CADILLAC, Sask., Aug. 4.—(U.P.)—Farmers in Southwestern Saskatchewan this summer once more played a long-shot hoping that good rains would produce a bumper crop. But the favorite—drought—came in again and farmers today prepared to stick out another lean winter.

An almost rainless summer was no novelty to grain growers in this part of Saskatchewan. Farmers in some municipalities had received payments under the federal Prairie Farm Assistance Act every year since it started in 1939 except in 1942, a bumper year throughout the province. Maximum payment under the scheme was $500 with yields of less than four bushels an acre.

10.8 BUSHELS AN ACRE
In the past 42 years farmers in this area have averaged 10.8 bushels of wheat an acre. In the past six years they averaged less than seven bushels. This year the yield was expected to be less than three bushels. The long-time provincial average was 15 bushels an acre.

The meagre yield meant that hundreds of farmers would have nothing to show for their year's work. Because of the feed shortage, some would have to slaughter some of their cattle. A great number of farmers, although making use of every possible fodder source, including the Russian thistle weed, would have to bring in feed from other parts of Saskatchewan.

EVERYTHING POSSIBLE
In the face of disaster, farmers were doing what they could to help themselves. Hundreds were earning money helping harvest the crops of luckier men in more prosperous areas. Others, taking advantage of a provincial government assistance program, took their hay-making machinery to hay-scarious areas in a statement of feed back to their own barren farms.

Hard-hit growers, however, were not so absorbed by today's problems that they could not think of tomorrow. They had proposed a program under which they would work on irrigation, conservation and other projects.

Science Lab Opening Set At Lethbridge

LETHBRIDGE, Aug. 4.—(CP)—Preparations are being completed for the official opening of the Lethbridge new science service laboratory, commemoration of Irrigation Day, and celebrations of the diamond jubilee of the Lethbridge chamber of commerce. All three will be held Sept. 22. Invitations have been extended to Prime Minister St. Laurent, Agriculture Minister Gardiner, and his deputy Dr. G. M. Taggart. Premiers of western provinces and heads of Western Canada and 125 universities are among others who have been invited to attend the functions.

Calgary Asks Mental Care

CALGARY, Aug. 4.—(CP)—Calgary city council will be approached to request two hospitals to provide accommodation for psychiatric cases. Members of the special psychiatric committee decided at a meeting last night that the two hospitals should be asked to offer at least five beds each for the purpose. Acceptance of the proposal by the hospitals would eliminate the present practice of locking up psychiatric cases in city jails.

Subsidy Asked On Grain Freight

Canadian Manufacturers Say In National Interest

TORONTO, Aug. 4.—(CP)—A spokesman for the Canadian Manufacturers' Association proposed today to the Royal Commission on Transportation that low freight rates on western export grain should be subsidized by the dominion treasury.

Trimmed Aid Program Seen

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST
WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—(AP)—Figures on Russian military strength failed today to shake the determination of members of the house of representatives foreign affairs committee to trim President Truman's arms-aid program. After a full day of closed-door sessions with army and state department experts who helped draw the $1,450,000,000 program to rearm friendly countries, Democrats and Republicans alike agreed that the president won't get what he wants.

CURB FAVORED
There is heavy sentiment to curb the broad grant of presidential authority proposed and spell out, as closely as possible, the amount of assistance to be given to the countries to receive it, and the conditions under which it shall be provided. Instead of approving an arms aid plan to run through June 30, 1950, many committee members favor limiting it to next March 31, with the idea that congress can take another look in January and extend it if necessary. Those supporting this proposal would cut the financial authorization at least in half.

Teachers Want National Scope

MONTREAL, Aug. 4.—(CP)—Quebec delegates to the Canadian Teachers' Federation convention next week in Ottawa will ask for Dominion standing for teachers. It was learned today.

The Provincial Association of Protestant Teachers has long urged that teachers with recognized certificates based on completion of high school and at least one year of professional training be enabled to teach in any part of Canada.

DETROIT.—(U.P.)—Judge John P. Watts was not impressed by William Johnson's excuse for speeding. Johnson said his car was leaking oil and he was hurrying home before it ran out. The judge said $50 and six months probation.

Retailers Up in Arms Over U.K. Price Cut

LONDON, Aug. 4.—(AP)—Shopkeepers, galled by 10 years of government controls, today threatened outright rebellion against an order to cut prices. They are members of the National Chamber of Trade—250,000 of them.

The merchants objected to a directive issued last week by Harold Wilson, president of the board of trade, for retailers to slash prices of utility clothing, footwear and household textiles five per cent.

PREFER JAIL
An association of clothing dealers said its members will go to jail rather than conform.

The National Shoe Retailers' council announced it had informed Wilson it would advise its members to continue to charge present prices. The council declared in a statement it is prepared to face court action rather than give way. The management council of the National Association of Outfitters also issued a statement warning of a prospective revolt.

UTILITY CLOTHING
The utility clothing involved in the order is a line of plain garments whose production cost is subsidized by the government to keep prices down for the low salary class.

A. F. Hutchinson, general secretary of the Outfitters Association, explained the shopkeepers do not object to price cuts as such, but want the profit margins of manufacturers and wholesalers reduced so that the whole slash does not come out of the shopkeepers' profits.

The Outfitters' Association council statement said "this latest cut is as inequitable, as vicious and so obviously political that, for the first time in the history of price control, there is every likelihood that retailers will revolt."

East Rustlers Jailed

HALIFAX, Aug. 3.—(CP)—Two Halifax county men, Nova Scotia's first cattle rustlers in years, each were sentenced to six months' prison in police court here yesterday. They pleaded guilty to stealing two calves.

Used Car Dealers Form Association
MONTREAL, Aug. 4.—(CP)—Some 200 used-car dealers of Montreal, at a meeting here last night, formed an association to obtain wider rights to run their business and obtain relief under provincial and municipal sales taxes. A spokesman for the dealers said they took particular exception to the manner in which the first per cent provincial tax and the two per cent civic tax is levied.

Burglar Repents
SALINAS, Cal.—(U.P.)—A hard-working burglar was also a repentant one. Less than 12 hours after he had bored and sawed his way into a sports store to steal revolvers, he called sheriff's deputies and told them they would find the guns in a shoebox in front of the store.

Bufs Out-hit Puritans But Drop 8-1 Decision

Les McManus Given Scare

CALGARY, Aug. 4 — (CP) — Puritans last night trimmed the luckless Calgary Buffaloes 8-1 at Buffalo Stadium in a Big Four Baseball league game that was close in everything but the score.

Bufs out-hit the opposition 11-10 but couldn't get runners around to score.

VAN DEELAN HOSPITALIZED SIX WEEKS

"Dutchy" Van Deelan, Regina Cap hockey player injured in an automobile accident at the last week-end, will have to remain in hospital for six weeks at least, and was charged with the loss after giving up six hits in five play innings. Lloyd Bradley took over for three frames and Keith Bing, who usually plays in the infield, finished out the game.

Bradley spoiled a shut-out for Whyte when he connected in the fourth frame to draw home Art Stone.

Purity, put over a four-run up-raise in the sixth to clinch the decision and drive Gibson from the hill.

Jack Mills, Purity, led the hitters with three base hits, including a three-bagger, in five trips to the plate.

British Walker Team Oozes With Optimism

NEW YORK, Aug. 4 — (AP) — Britain's Walker Cup golf team, hailed as possibly the strongest from that country in the history of the competition arrived yesterday for its battle with United States forces at Winged Foot club here, Aug. 19-20.

Nobody heard a single "we hope to put up a jolly good show" as Capt. Laddie Lucas and his nine teammates walked down the gangplank of the liner Queen Elizabeth. They were met by Francis Quimby, non-playing leader of the United States team, and other USGA officials.

Instead, Sam McCready, husky Irishman who defeated Willie Turney in the final of this summer's British amateur, shouted:

"Where's Willie? I hope you've got him sharpened up for me. I've come looking for him."

McCready seemed to reflect the confident attitude of the entire group. Lucas, a southpaw, had this to say:

"I won't predict we'll win, but I know we're going to give you a real fight. This team of ours has been put together with more care than any previous British team, and for the first time we have trained seriously as a team."

Hamilton Soccerites In Final

WINNIPEG, Aug. 4 — (CP) — Hamilton, eastern champions, played head-up ball and defeated Winnipeg Scottish, Manitoba representatives, 4-2 in the third game of a best-of-three dominion soccer semi-final series here last night.

First game last Saturday ended in a 2-2 draw and the easterners took the second Monday 1-0.

Hamilton now will meet Vancouver North Shore in a best-of-three final at Calgary, starting Saturday. Vancouver earned the berth into the final by defeating Edmonton Legion two straight in their series, 4-0 and 9-0.

Score at the end of the first half was 1-0 in favor of Hamilton. They counted three times in the second half with two replies from Winnipeg.

Johnny Cimpbell, outside left for Hamilton, was the outstanding player of the game. Besides scoring three times he was a continual source of trouble to the Winnipeg defenders.

Woodenface Fanned Again

Leroy Armstrong, 8153-81 avenue, fanned his last ball down the middle yesterday to win the Bulletin's Woodenface contest at King Edward Park.

The 14 year old right-hander defeated 19 competitors for King Edward Park title. As a result he qualifies for a shot at the Woodenface grand prize in the playoffs over other playground winners.

Eventually winners from east, west and south Edmonton will meet in a final at the end of the season.

Second game of the round is scheduled for 8:30 Saturday night, and the third contest goes Monday at 6:45. Fourth and final games, necessary, will be played Wednesday and Friday of next week.

Winner of the series enters the northern Alberta playoffs in a doubleheader against C.A.M.B. Legion, at Cadomin, August 14.

'MY BOYS ARE GOOD BOYS'

Burt Shotton, Dodgers Must Be Going Steady

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 4 — (AP) — Current National league pennant surge of Brooklyn Dodgers was no surprise to well-mannered Burt Shotton.

"I just have a good ball club," the 65-year-old Dodgers manager said yesterday. "I have boys that can do things. They can hit and run and field. Those are the things that count."

His ball club echoes Shotton's quiet confidence. They feel they are pennant-bound but there is no evidence of tension or strain.

Esk Grid Hopeful Hikes 2,300 Miles

The lean young man had little to say to Eskimo football coach Annis Stukus last night at Clarke Stadium. But he came straight to the point.

Said he: "I'd like to play for Edmonton."

He didn't look much different from the 40-year-old young men in the training camp. A little leaner, maybe... and hungrier.

For 22 year old Bruce Marshall had hitch-hiked from Montreal to Edmonton for a tryout with the Eskimos. And he didn't ride, or eat, regularly on the 2,300 mile jaunt.

Whether Marshall will make the club won't be known for a time, but he will get as good a shot as the next man. And while he is in the west at least he can count on getting his feet under a meal table regularly.

Last season Marshall played tackle with a Quebec intermediate team. This will be his first shot at big time Canadian football.

Said Stukus, after hearing the lean young man's story: "The kid took a chance coming here, the least we can do is string along with him."

HOT OF THE GRIDDLE

George Shortreed will be released from hospital today. Prior to being injured in an automobile accident last Sunday he was one of the Edmonton homebodies likely to make the Eskimo team...

Harry Hobbs, former varsity Golden Bear pitcher, arrived home from his honeymoon yesterday. Stukus has high regard for the varsity pitcher, who likely shuffles him into a running half position.

St. Pats to Protest RCAF's 2-1 Triumph

RCAF advanced to the second round of provincial senior soccer playdowns, defeating Oliver St. Pats 2-1 at Clarke Stadium last night. However, there may be a committee-room battle before RCAF gets the green light to play the winner of North Side Legion-Anavets in the northern Alberta final.

St. Pats, according to team secretary George Hall, will protest last night's game.

Dispute arose midway through the second half, with Oliver leading 1-0. Dave McAra, St. Pats' left-back, was tossed out of the game by referee Joe Thompson, thus giving RCAF a one-man advantage.

RCAF promptly scored a pair of goals to put the game on "ice." We figure we lost the game because of the man advantage," Hall bellowed.

According to Hall, all McAra said to referee Thompson was "the ball's out" when the oval went over the touch line.

Syd Watson, Edmonton and District Football association publicity man, said last night nothing can be done until Thompson's report is filed.

Oliver held a one-goal margin at the half on a marker by Roman Stelcyn, Ukrainian DP. Tom Lewis evened the count midway through the second half on a penalty kick and Joe Melia notched the clincher, a beauty, with five minutes to go.

RCAF — McDonald, Stett, Baron, Tuckey, O'Brien, Melia, Jordan, Richardson, Wallace, Kesteven, Morris.

Oliver — McAra, Kruper, McAra, Richardson, Wallace, Hamilton, Morris.

Syd Watson, Edmonton and District Football association publicity man, said last night nothing can be done until Thompson's report is filed.

JUICY DOUBLE PAID AT COAST

VANCOUVER, Aug. 4 — (CP) — Largest daily double this year was paid at Exhibition Park yesterday as two longshots returned $1,000.00 to four ticket holders.

Winner of the first race, Bobpara, scored an easy one and one-half length victory over a ten-horse field to return $36.10, $10.10 and $5.50.

Western Comet won its first start this year in the second, defeating favorites Vine Star and Union Jack to post modest returns of $41.40, $14.75 and $5.05.

KALAMAZOO, Mich., Aug. 4 — (AP) — Canadian junior doubles teams remained in the U.S. national junior boys' tennis championships as first round play concluded yesterday.

"It's better the whole team," he declared. "They're all great."

The Good Thing Ran Like an Icicle

Nick the Fink was way off his feed when we met up with him yesterday in a Jasper avenue—shall we call it—horse-parlor?

He had just blown a big bet at Regina. The nag in question had been one of those sure things. And even Nick—wise as he is in the strange doings of the race-track—had convinced himself that this one couldn't lose.

My old friend shook his head sadly as he remarked: "I thought that short of falling down in the stretch this thing was a mortal cinch."

"So what happens? The stiff doesn't get even a smell of the purse."

It was obvious Nick was badly shaken by the turn of events.

"You know," he continued, "I've got to the point where I'm ready to try any stunt, just to win a bet."

Then suddenly the frown lifted and a smile crossed Nick's face. Something seemed to strike him as funny all of a sudden.

"Like that friend of mine at Pimlico, the time," he was chuckling by now. "Did I ever tell yuh the story?"

A Blonde to the Rescue

It seemed that one time Nick and a pal were hard at it at the Maryland course, trying to disprove the old saw that "all horse players die broke."

Nick wasn't doing too badly. But the pal—he was having lots of luck—all bad. Finally down to his last C-note he had chucked it in on a 20-1 shot.

Nick's pal went up into the stands to watch the race. As the horses paraded to the post he sat there nervously wringing his hands, forehead bathed in perspiration. His agitation was plain to see.

So much so that first thing he knew a beautiful blonde, obviously taking pity on him, had settled down in the seat next to his. She turned to talk to him.

"What's the trouble," she asked. "You thinkin' of jumpin' off the grandstand or somethin'?"

He explained that it was nothing like that. It was just that what money he had was riding on one horse (he pointed out the animal to her) and things would be real tough if it didn't prove a winner.

So He Married The Babe

The blonde was sympathetic . . . wanted, in fact, to help.

"You know," she said, "this may sound kinda silly. But I've a good luck charm all my own. Let's see if it won't work for you."

Then she told him to pluck a hair from her head—just that, nothing more. "Go ahead," she almost begged, as he hesitated. "What can you lose?"

So Nick's pal, desperate and all as he was, gingerly reached over and yanked a hair from his companion's beautiful mop. Then they sat back to watch the race.

To make a long story short the 20-1 long shot was an easy winner. It was the same the remaining days of the meeting. Everytime Nick's pal made a bet he went through the hair pulling routine with the blonde. The money rolled in. Finally he "married the babe," as Nick put it.

Nick lost sight of them then for a few years, until one winter he happened to stop in at Agua Caliente. Learning that his old pal was on the grounds he hastened around to say hello.

Nick found him in a tack room, deep, as usual, in Racing Form. It was obvious he had fallen on evil days. His clothes were old and worn. A week's stubble covered his face.

Nick and the blonde—his wife? Yes, she had stayed by him all the time. Only by now, her good looks a thing of the past, she was bald as a billiard ball.

LITTLE TAKES THRILLING FINAL

Edmonton Rink Wins Alberta Bowling Title

CALGARY, Aug. 4.—(CP)—In what veteran observers declared the finest display of lawn bowling ever staged in Calgary, a Little of Edmonton Legion club last night won the Goodyear singles trophy, emblematic of the Alberta championship. He defeated J. Fitzsimmons, Calgary Army and Navy Vets, 21-17.

Little won the match in 24 ends of a close final, moving into winning position only on the 20th, when he scored a four end by running the jack.

Up to that point the two bowlers had never been more than a couple of points apart.

Fitzsimmons drew a bye in the first round and reached the final by defeating J. Roburn, Medicine Hat. Little won over D. Mackie, Calgary, in the first round while George Coward, Edmonton Legion, won over W. Scott, Lethbridge. Then, Little eliminated Coward to enter the final bracket.

In the consolation, P. Green-slade, Bow Valley, finished on top, with J. MacPherson, Edmonton Legion, second.

Annual meeting of the Alberta Lawn Bowling association will be held tonight.

Overnight showers and intermittent downpours during the day turned Halifax clay courts into soups much to the chagrin of the again of quarter-finals in four events including men's and ladies singles.

Dodgers Taste First But Chased by Cardinals

STANDINGS

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—(CP)—Brooklyn Dodgers were back in first place (tied with St. Louis Cardinals) for a few hours yesterday. But after the Cardinals won their night game the Redbirds were in front again in the National league by a half-game margin.

Dodgers pounded out a 10-5 victory over Pittsburgh Pirates in the afternoon to gain the temporary tie only to have St. Louis trounce Boston Braves 7-0 at night and regain sole possession of league leadership.

As the Dodgers scored their third consecutive victory over the Bucs, Duke Snider batted in three runs with a single, a double and his 14th home run of the season.

At St. Louis Howie Pollet burlied his fourth shutout and 14th victory of the season for Cardinals.

POLLET HOT
Pollet allowed four hits and struck out six in what was probably his best-pitched contest of the season. He walked one. A five-run outburst in the fourth by the Redbirds took the pressure off Pollet.

In other National league games New York Giants won their sixth victory in a row, whipping Chicago Cubs, 4-1. Cincinnati Reds downed Philadelphia Phillies 7-0.

In the American league leading New York Yankees came from behind to beat Detroit Tigers 7-5. Boston Red Sox walloped St. Louis Browns 9-3. Philadelphia Athletics edged Chicago White Sox 5-2, and the Cleveland-Washington game was washed out by rain.

At Cincinnati Ken Raffensberger beat Phils to two hits for his fifth shutout of the season and his 11th victory against as many defeats.

CANUCK ROOKIE STARS
In the American league, Athletics head Chicago when rookie first baseman Han Raaijst of Windsor, Ont. grabbed his first hit of the season, an eighth inning double that produced the winning run. Raaijst took over for Ferris Fain two days ago when the regular first sacker was forced in the sideburns by a minor operation.

At Boston Ellis Kinder set a 1945 high for Red Sox pitchers by striking out 14 batters as Boston topped St. Louis. American league record for strikeouts in 18 innings held by Cleveland's Bob Feller.

Don D'Maggio extended his consecutive game hitting streak to 30 for Red Sox.

Dispersal Of Seeds Takes Place In Different Ways

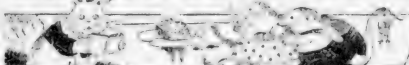

Dear Tawasi:—
In your garden this summer there may be berries and poppies you didn't even plant. What likely has happened is that the wind has carried the seeds from one part of the garden to another. They have taken root and grown into beautiful flowers.

In this case seed dispersal has been done by the wind. The seeds have been carried by the wind to a new location where they have taken root and grown into beautiful flowers.

Often seeds, or the seeds case, in which they are enclosed, have some means of dispersal. Some seeds are carried by the wind, some by water, some by animals, and some by insects.

Just like people, plants migrate. Some plants migrate by the wind, some by water, some by animals, and some by insects.

BEDTIME STORY

By THORNTON W. BURGESS
Peter Rabbit wished he never just as he had let him. Johnny and thought of entering Johnny hadn't moved as much as a hair. Chuck's house. He wished that Sammy Jay never had put it into his head to want to see Johnny. Chuck ate up the winter. He was for this he would have been satisfied to enter Johnny Chuck's house only far enough to escape from the house.

Often seeds, or the seeds case, in which they are enclosed, have some means of dispersal. Some seeds are carried by the wind, some by water, some by animals, and some by insects.

Just like people, plants migrate. Some plants migrate by the wind, some by water, some by animals, and some by insects.

CONFUSED PETER

Peter resolved that he would never again let himself be taken in by the same old story. He would never again let himself be taken in by the same old story.

OIL

New Pacalta Starts No. 2

By Hal Dean

Officials of New Pacalta Oils Company Limited announced today a drilling contract had been given to Canadian Drilling Company of Edmonton to start another well immediately on Pacalta Whittemud acreage in the Leduc field.

Same contractor also drilled the successful producer New Pacalta Whittemud No. 1 placed on production two weeks ago and which is asserted to be the best Lower Cretaceous well in the field, with a potential rating of well above 1,000 barrels.

New location on LSD 16 of 15-21-25-W4 is an offset to and directly west of No. 1. It is also directly west of the discoverer well in the Imperial Whittemud No. 1, situated in the adjoining section.

Canadian Drilling Co. is now reeling the rotary rig to the new site and actual drilling operations will start underway immediately. New Pacalta also has staked locations for numbers 3 and 4 in 15-21-25-W4 and LSD 6, respectively, of the same section.

OIL WATER IN BARRHEAD 1

Test at Barrhead-Harrhead No. 1, 12 miles northwest of Barrhead, gave 2,387 barrels of 23 degree API gravity crude and 1,000 barrels of water during the present down 2 to 22. Gas flow was 2 million feet daily. After drilling to 6,314 feet, test was again brought back to 4,000 feet for tests of showing at that depth.

Leduc Calmar No. 1A contacted the D2 zone at 5,150 and is continuing to core.

Good progress is reported from Barrhead No. 2, now a water-producing operation. Depth of 4,000 feet has been reached last night, which would mean about 40 to 50 feet of water. This is the well which ran 2,387 barrels of 23 degree API gravity crude and 1,000 barrels of water during the present down 2 to 22.

72 CREWS IN ALBERTA

Monthly geophysical survey completed by Calgary "Daily Oil Bulletin" reports 88 crews operating in Alberta, including 72 in the Leduc field. The survey covers 29 different oil companies, groups and independents.

Largest activity is in the Leduc field where 72 crews, 61 seismicograph and 100 geophysical units are working. The survey also shows 100 geophysical units are working in the Leduc field. The survey also shows 100 geophysical units are working in the Leduc field.

TORONTO, Aug. 4.—(CP)—Gold was in the spotlight on the Toronto Stock Exchange today as they climbed to a new 1949 high. Volume for the day in all groups was about 1,250,000 shares.

Senior issues spearheaded the gold. The junior rise was just as impressive in several issues moved into the plus side.

The rise in gold was linked with interest in steel stocks in the New York market.
